II.2.2.5 - Provisions relating to tickets

II.2.2.5.1 Type of tickets delivered:

- When booking/ordering by telephone through our Central Reservation Office, hard tickets are available for sale.
- When booking/ordering on the Website, you will be delivered either electronic vouchers ("E-Vouchers") which need to be exchanged for a hard ticket upon your arrival at Disneyland® Paris, or electronic tickets ("E-Tickets") providing direct access to the Disney® Parks turnstiles or to the Separate Service that you have booked/ordered, depending on the nature of the relevant Separate Service. You may also request hard tickets, subject to your booking/order being made at the latest fourteen (14) days prior to your expected date of visit.
- When booking/ordering with a travel agent or a ticketing office, you will be able to book/order either E-Tickets that provide direct access to the Disney® Park's turnstiles or to the Separate Service that you have booked/ordered depending on the nature of the relevant Separate Service or E-Vouchers that must be exchanged against a hard ticket at Disneyland® Paris.

II.2.2.5.2 Charges applicable to delivery of hard tickets:

Hard tickets booked/ordered through Euro Disney will be delivered to the address communicated at the time of booking/order and handling fees will be charged in the amount of €11.07 per booking/order. If your hard tickets cannot be sent to the address communicated to us or if you fail to inform us in due time that your hard tickets have not been received, we reserve the right to charge the above-mentioned fee for issuing and sending duplicate tickets.

II.2.2.5.3 Conditions of acceptance of tickets:

Please refer to clause I.2 to know how to make an advanced reservation.

It is your responsibility to ensure that your tickets are free from any deterioration upon presentation on your arrival at Disneyland® Paris. E-tickets and E-Vouchers giving access to the Disney® Parks and to some other Separate Services that you have booked/ordered with Euro Disney directly may be printed on your personal printer. It is your responsibility to ensure that you hold a perfectly printed E-Ticket or E-Voucher to avoid the risk of rejection of your E-Ticket or E-Voucher.

When booking/ordering with a travel agent or a ticketing operator, they must provide you with a perfectly printed E-Ticket or E-Voucher copy to avoid the risk of access to the Disney® Park(s) or to the Separate Service that you have booked/ordered being denied. Any complaint or dissatisfaction that you may have in relation to the use of E-Vouchers or E-Tickets must be reported directly to your travel agent or your ticketing operator.

It is strictly prohibited to photocopy or duplicate E-Tickets and E-Vouchers. Tickets (hard tickets, E-Vouchers and E-Tickets) that have already been used will not be accepted at Disneyland® Paris.

You are required to bring the relevant E-Ticket or E-Voucher accompanied with valid photographic identity papers to access the relevant Separate Service. E-Vouchers need to be exchanged at your arrival at Disneyland® Paris at the location indicated on the E-Voucher against a ticket giving direct access to Disney® Parks turnstiles or to the Separate Service you have booked/ordered.

INFORMATION NOTICE RELATING TO PACKAGES

Key rights under Directive (EU) 2015/2302:

- Travellers will receive all essential information about the package before concluding the package travel contract.
- There is always at least one trader who is liable for the proper performance of all the travel services included in the contract.
- Travellers are given an emergency telephone number or details of a contact point where they can get in touch with the organiser or the travel agent.
- Travellers may transfer the package to another person, on reasonable notice and possibly subject to additional costs.
- The price of the package may only be increased if specific costs rise (for instance fuel prices), and if expressly provided for in the contract, and in any event not later than 20 days before the start of the package. If the price increase exceeds 8% of the price of the package, the traveller may terminate the contract. If the organiser reserves the right to a price increase, the traveller has a right to a price reduction if there is a decrease in the relevant costs.
- Travellers may terminate the contract without paying any termination fee and get a full refund of any payments if any of the essential elements of the package, other than the price, are changed significantly. If before the start of the package the trader responsible for the package cancels the package, travellers are entitled to a refund and compensation where appropriate.
- Travellers may terminate the contract without paying any termination fee before the start of the package in the event of exceptional circumstances, for instance if there are serious security problems at the destination which are likely to affect the package.
- Additionally, travellers may at any time before the start of the package terminate the contract in return for an appropriate and justifiable termination fee.
- If, after the start of the package, significant elements of the package cannot be provided as agreed, suitable alternative arrangements will have to be offered to the traveller at no extra cost. Travellers may terminate the contract without paying any termination fee, where services are not performed in accordance with the contract and this substantially affects the performance of the package and the organiser fails to remedy the problem.
- Travellers are also entitled to a price reduction and/or compensation for damages where the travel services are not performed or are improperly performed.
- The organiser has to provide assistance if the traveller is in difficulty.
- If the organiser becomes insolvent, payments will be refunded. If the organiser becomes insolvent after the start of the package and if transport is included in the package, repatriation of the travellers is secured.
